Admission requirements

The University's Admission Policy will apply.

Prior OP students: Applicants who graduated with an OP in or before 2019 can apply to Queensland Curriculum and Assessment Authority (QCAA) for an ATAR statement. For more information visit qcaa.qld.edu.au/senior/australian-tertiary-admission-rank-atar.

From 2024 there will be two admission pathways to the Bachelor of Games Design. Applicants may be considered via one of the following:

1. ATAR/Rank*

2. Portfolio and interview.

Applicants are encouraged to submit a portfolio and attend an interview even if they are confident that they will meet the minimum adjusted ATAR/Rank. This is an opportunity to showcase your talent, interests and commitment to a screen production degree and reflects best industry practices.

Applications for admission are made through the Queensland Tertiary Admissions Centre (QTAC).

Portfolios are submitted directly to Griffith, with all details available on the GFS Portfolio admission (griffith.edu.au) webpage.

Prerequisites

- Nil

Assumed knowledge

- Any General or Applied English subject (Units 3&4, C)

Additional Requirements

- Portfolio and interview

* For Trimester 1, 2024 offers were made to applicants via the ATAR/rank pathway with the minimum adjusted ATAR/Rank being 65.00. Minimum thresholds can change from year to year and should be used as a guide only for any future intakes.

Applicants with VET qualifications may not be offered a place if the lowest selection rank is higher than the equivalent rank for the VET qualification.

Language requirements

English language requirements apply to International applicants and other applicants whose previous study was undertaken in a language other than English. The minimum English language requirements for such applicants for entry to these programs are described below.

Credit and recognition of prior learning

Griffith University awards credit for prior learning which may relate to prior formal learning or prior informal and non-formal learning. For more information see below.

What is the application process?
How to apply

Selection of applicants for the Griffith Film School's programs is based on a satisfactory portfolio and interview or ATAR/Rank.

To be considered via the Portfolio pathway applicants must apply to QTAC (or via Internal Transfer for current Griffith University students), pay the portfolio fee and submit their portfolio to Griffith University by the following dates:

Early Portfolio Round: 6 September 2023

Later Portfolio Round: 20 October 2023

Portfolios are submitted directly to Griffith, with all details available on the GFS Portfolio admission webpage.

Applicants who wish to apply after this date may be considered in subsequent offer rounds should places still be available.

QTAC application information

Bachelor of Games Design

QTAC Code: 241312

Selection for admission is competitive as the number of applicants generally exceeds the places available.

Contact portfolioadmissions@griffith.edu.au for more information.

Guaranteed Admission Scheme

This degree is excluded from the Guaranteed Admission Scheme.

A summary of the student profile for this program can be found on the QTAC website. The Rank profile is located on the Student Profile tab.

Important offer advice: Should you receive an offer into this program you will be required to enrol into classes* within a short timeframe. This information will be included in your Starting@Griffith email and expressed in the number of days from the day of issue of your email. For QTAC applicants this is in line with the offer response date in your offer email, however Griffith accepts close of business that day - 5pm (AEST). Please note that the number of days can vary depending on when the offer was made. This requirement applies to all applicants irrespective of how you applied and/or whether you accepted conditionally or unconditionally. If you do not enrol* into at least one class for your program by 5pm on the response day your offer will lapse. Lapsed offers are not automatically reinstated and are subject to available places.

*Enrolling into classes means that you are advising when you are attending class/es. Enrolment must be submitted
