Admission requirements

The University's Admission Policy will apply.

To be eligible for admission to this Honours program, consideration will be given to the following criteria:

- have achieved a grade point average of at least 5.0 in their undergraduate degree
- have negotiated one supervisor who is available and willing to facilitate the student's requirements
- prospective students must confirm prior to application that their chosen project can be conducted within the appropriate concentration area, that is, check the availability of resources, supervision etc.
- submit a proposal outlining the nature of the Research Project they wish to undertake
- applicants are required to present a current folio of their most outstanding work.

Language requirements

English language requirements apply to International applicants and other applicants whose previous study was undertaken in a language other than English. The minimum English language requirements for such applicants for entry to these programs are described below.

Credit and recognition of prior learning

Griffith University awards credit for prior learning which may relate to prior formal learning or prior informal and non-formal learning. For more information see below.

What is the application process?

How to apply

An international student is a person who is not Australian citizen, a New Zealand citizen, a Pacific Engagement visa holder or the holder of a permanent resident/humanitarian visa.

This program is available to International students for study in Australia at Griffith University.

International students applying to study on-campus in Australia will require a student visa or another type of visa which does not preclude them from studying in Australia.

You can apply for admission online OR via a Griffith University registered agent.

Note: Applicants should discuss their proposed Honours Project with a GFS staff member before making an application to an Honours program at the Griffith Film School (GFS) and check the GFS Undergraduate Honours Admission Guide for further information.
