Admission requirements

The University's Admission Policy will apply.

To be eligible for admission to this Honours program, consideration will be given to the following criteria:

- A GPA of at least 5.0 (credit level) over the second and third year of the Bachelor degree;
- have achieved a GPA of at least 5.0 in the major studio components of the second and third years of the undergraduate degree
- have completed 30 credit points in art theory in the second and third years of the undergraduate degree with a GPA of at least 5.0
- A suitable Research Proposal (please see questions in the QCAD Undergraduate Honours Research Proposal Guide) and the resources available to support the candidature.
- A portfolio of 6-10 images of your own work in any media (this can be sketches, work in progress, and/or completed work), accompanied by a short description for each work.
- An interview demonstrating your self-motivation and self-awareness.
- The availability of an appropriate proposed supervisor. The confirmation of your Supervisor will be approved upon entry into the program.
- The preparedness of the applicant to undertake the degree in terms of the elapsed time since the prospective candidate qualified for the award of a Bachelor degree and the academic preparation provided by the Bachelor's degree for the candidate's proposed Dissertation topic.

Language requirements

English language requirements apply to International applicants and other applicants whose previous study was undertaken in a language other than English. The minimum English language requirements for such applicants for entry to these programs are described below.

What is the application process?

How to apply

Griffith will assess your first preference and will only assess subsequent preferences if you are not successful.

Once you have submitted your application, you will be sent an email about how to track your application.

For a full list of your incomplete or submitted applications, please view your application list.
