Can I apply?

Admission requirements

The University's Admission Policy will apply.

Applicants for this Honours program must have successfully completed the Bachelor of Industrial Design (or equivalent) with a GPA of 5.0 (using a 7.0 point scale) over second and third year level courses.

The suitability of the proposed dissertation topic and availability of supervisors will also be considered.

Language requirements

English language requirements apply to International applicants and other applicants whose previous study was undertaken in a language other than English. The minimum English language requirements for such applicants for entry to these programs are described below.

Credit and recognition of prior learning

Griffith University awards credit for prior learning which may relate to prior formal learning or prior informal and non-formal learning. For more information see below.

What is the application process?

How to apply

An international student is a person who is not Australian citizen, a New Zealand citizen, a Pacific Engagement visa holder or the holder of a permanent resident/humanitarian visa.

This program is available to International students for study in Australia at Griffith University or via online study as follows:

- Students coming to Australia will require a student visa or another type of visa which does not preclude them from studying in Australia.
- Students in Australia on a student visa may not complete more than 30% of the program via online study.
- Students in Australia and not on a student visa may undertake more than 30% of the program via online study.
- Students can apply to study online outside Australia without any visa requirements.

You can apply for admission online OR via a Griffith University registered agent.
