

Graduate Certificate in Communication (International students)

Program code	Admission requirements	Commencing in
3199	Any Bachelor degree or higher	OUA - Sessions 1, 2 and 3
Available at	Relevant work experience	Apply Now
Online	(more)
Duration
1 year part-time
Credit points
40
Indicative fee
Find out more

About this program

The Graduate Certificate in Communication (via Open Universities Australia) will consist of four core courses. These core courses offer students a broad understanding of the discipline. Each individual course develops skills, techniques and methodologies needed to participate professionally as a communicator or communications analyst.

This Graduate Certificate program will provide the initial courses for the Master of Communication.

For further information, please contact either of the following areas:

- Open Universities Australia \(OUA\)
- Griffith \(OUA\) Services

My attendance during the program

Attendance information

This degree program is offered through Open Universities Australia. As an Open Universities Australia student, you are not required to study on-campus. You may complete this degree entirely off-campus through Open Universities Australia.

This program is offered to Domestic and International students via off-campus/online delivery only.

My career opportunities

My career opportunities

Graduates of this program may find employment and receive enhanced professional recognition in areas such as:

- Professional communication
- Federal, state and local government
- Public education industries and organisations
- Public Relations
- Corporate promotions
- Journalism
- Freelance Writing
- Creative Industries.

What are the fees?

Additional fee information

Standard open learning unit fees will apply. Contact Open Universities Australia \(OUA\) for details.