Can I apply?

Admission requirements

To be eligible for admission to the Graduate Certificate in Design, applicants must:

- hold a non-related bachelor degree from a recognised University (or another tertiary education institution of equivalent standing)
- OR have completed a minimum of four years industrial experience with the Design industry.

Note: Degrees from overseas institutions must be assessed as equivalent to a recognised Australian qualification.

Language requirements

English language requirements apply to International applicants and other applicants whose previous study was undertaken in a language other than English. The minimum English language requirements for such applicants for entry to these programs are described below.

Credit and recognition of prior learning

Griffith University awards credit for prior learning which may relate to prior formal learning or prior informal and non-formal learning. For more information see below.

What is the application process?

How to apply

To apply, add this program to your shortlist at the top of this page or apply for this program now (a maximum of three preferences is allowed).

Griffith will assess your first preference and will only assess subsequent preferences if you are not successful.

Once you have submitted your application, you will be sent an email about how to track your application.

For a full list of your incomplete or submitted applications, please view your application list.

Note: Applicants are not permitted to defer an offer. Should you be unable to accept an offer, you must re-apply for entry in the following year.

What are the language requirements?

Language requirements
