

Master of International Law (Domestic students)

Program code

5694

Available at

Online

Duration

12 teaching periods

Credit points

120

Commencing in

For Continuing Students Only

About this program

This program has been withdrawn for commencing students. Commencing students are referred to the Master of International Law \(5729\).

The Master of International Law program will equip a range of qualified professionals to understand and apply international and globalised law principles in contexts such as cross-border transactions and disputes; cross-border family law disputes; public international law developments and cross-border negotiations. The program is designed to give students a competitive edge in the legal, academic, government, business, engineering and other professions where greater skills and knowledge in the field of international and global law are increasingly being required. Students will complete 120 credit points over two years part time with twelve courses per year over six teaching periods. All content will be delivered online.

Code	Program title	Campus	Intake
5694	Master of International Law (this program)	Online	For Continuing Students Only
3335	Graduate Certificate in International Law	Online
4199	Graduate Diploma of International Law	Online	Exit point only

My attendance during the program

Attendance information

The Master of International Law is offered online. You will be able to access course materials, participate in learning activities, lodge assessment items and access support services via Learning@Griffith. There is no requirement for on-campus attendance and access to a reliable computer with internet connection is essential.

This program comprises 12 courses to be completed over two years. The program is taught over six teaching periods throughout the year and students can begin in any teaching period. Each course is taught over a six-week period. Students will complete one or two courses in each teaching period.

My career opportunities

My career opportunities

Graduates will gain a competitive advantage in a range of professional, legal and commercial employment markets, through high level understanding of, and skills in, international, and comparative global law, principles and practice.

What are the fees?

Fee-paying postgraduate (domestic) students

Indicative annual tuition fee

The indicative annual tuition fee is calculated based on a standard full-time study load which is usually 80 credit points.

The indicative annual tuition fee is based on current conditions and available data and should only be used as a guide. These fees are reviewed annually and are subject to change.

Tuition fees

- A fee-paying postgraduate student pays tuition fees.
- Students are liable for tuition fees for the courses they are enrolled in as at the census date.
- The tuition fee for students who commence their program prior to 2014 is charged according to the approved program fee for the trimester in which the student commenced the program.
- The tuition fee for students who commence their program from 2014 onwards is charged according to the approved program fee for the trimester in which the student is enrolled.

Program fees for the Master of International Law (5694)

Fees for this program can be found on the Programs and Courses website in the "Overview and fees" section. Select your commencing year to view your fees.

Tuition fees for your degree program

- Calculating tuition fees

Changing programs

If a postgraduate student changes to a different program they will be subject to the approved program fee for the trimester in which they are enrolled.

Further information

- Fees and Charges Policy
- Higher Education Loan Program \(HELP\)
- Financial help and support