Credit and recognition of prior learning

Griffith University awards credit for prior learning which may relate to prior formal learning or prior informal and non-formal learning. For more information see below.

What is the application process?

How to apply

An international student is a person who is not Australian citizen, a New Zealand citizen, a Pacific Engagement visa holder or the holder of a permanent resident/humanitarian visa.

This program is available to International students for study in Australia at Griffith University or via online study as follows:

- Students coming to Australia will require a student visa or another type of visa which does not preclude them from studying in Australia.
- Students in Australia on a student visa may not complete more than 30% of the program via online study.
- Students in Australia and not on a student visa may undertake more than 30% of the program via online study.
- Students can apply to study online outside Australia without any visa requirements.

You can apply for admission online OR via a Griffith University registered agent.

What are the language requirements?

Language requirements
