About this program

The Diploma of International Tourism and Hotel Management is a pathway program designed to help you transition into the Bachelor of International Tourism and Hotel Management. You'll develop foundational knowledge and skills in a supportive learning environment, setting you up for success in your future studies.

The tourism and hospitality industry is evolving, with a shift towards progressive, innovative workplace and industry practices. You'll learn the skills, values and opportunities future industry leaders will need to succeed. The Diploma of International Tourism and Hotel Management will teach you modern business practices, such as adaptability, creativity, diversity, and sustainability, along with foundational marketing and business management theory the industry needs.

You'll study an academic foundation course that prepares you for your university studies, as well as courses on business decision making, fundamentals of hospitality, global tourism system, interpreting tourism management information, and why money matters, with additional support and access to a dedicated First Year Coordinator and (PASS), run by high-achieving students.

My attendance during the program

Attendance information

This program is offered full-time and part-time at the Nathan and Gold Coast campuses and online. You may choose to study courses at other campuses where the program structure allows.

As a full-time student you will generally attend 12-16 hours of scheduled classes per week throughout the trimester. As a part-time student, you will generally attend 6-8 hours of scheduled classes per week.

Classes may be scheduled during the day and evening throughout the week.

Student Income Support

To be classed as a full-time student, you are required to enrol in a minimum number of credit points each standard study period. The minimum credit points for full-time enrolment in this program is 30 credit points.

Trimester 1 and Trimester 2 are deemed standard study periods. As Trimester 3 is a non-standard study period, continuing students moving from one year to the next will not be required to study during this trimester to be eligible for student income support.

Domestic students who commence in Trimester 3 may be eligible for student income support from the onset of study provided they are enrolled full-time in this study period.

Please refer to the Australian Government website for more details.

My career opportunities

My career opportunities

The Diploma of International Tourism and Hotel Management will give you foundational business knowledge and skills for working in the new economy, especially in the tourism and hospitality sectors. Your transferable business skills will prepare you for work in suppliers of goods and services to the tourism and hospitality industry, in airlines, and with local, state and federal tourism and regional planning authorities. You will also be prepared for further studies at the AQF Level 7, including a bachelor degree.

What are the fees?

Commonwealth supported students

- The indicative fee represents the expected average fee for an annual full-time study load (80 credit points). This is based on average study patterns across courses and the Australian Government's broad discipline areas (student contribution bands). A student's actual annual fee may vary in accordance with his or her choice of majors and electives. The Australian Government sets student contribution amounts on an annual basis.

Fee-paying undergraduate (domestic) students

These fees are only applicable to domestic students who are not Commonwealth supported including:

- Full-fee paying domestic students who commenced their program prior to 2009.
- International students who have been approved to pay domestic tuition fees after obtaining Australian or New Zealand citizenship or permanent residency or a permanent humanitarian visa and who have not obtained a Commonwealth supported place.

Tuition fees

- A fee-paying undergraduate student pays tuition fees.
- Students are liable for tuition fees for the courses they are enrolled in as at the census date.
- The tuition fee is charged according to the approved program fee for the trimester in which the student is enrolled.
