Credit and recognition of prior learning

Griffith University awards credit for prior learning which may relate to prior formal learning or prior informal and non-formal learning. For more information see below.

What is the application process?

How to apply

Students are required to enrol in individual units of study through Open Universities Australia:

- Open Universities Australia (OUA)

Students are also required to complete a registration form and pay a (non-refundable) application fee at the time of submitting the form. While there is no immediate requirement for students to register in this program, students are recommended to register in order to receive advice on credit, unit selection and award eligibility. Please visit the following website for further information:

- Griffith OUA Services
